Tiffany Lynn Andrews repeats as a 'California Rising Star' by Super Lawyers

FAIRFIELD, Calif., (September 23, 2014) – For the second year in a row, Super Lawyers has selected Tiffany Lynn Andrews, CWLS, to the 2014 California Rising Stars list. Each year, no more than 2.5 percent of the lawyers in the state are selected by the research team at Super Lawyers to receive this honor. Super Lawyers also selected Andrews as a 2013 California Rising Star.

Super Lawyers is a rating service of outstanding lawyers from more than 70 practice areas who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement. The annual selections are made using a patented multiphase process that includes a statewide survey of lawyers, an independent research evaluation of candidates and peer reviews by practice area.

Andrews has also been selected as a 2014 Top 10 Under 40 by National Academy of Family Law Attorneys and has an Excellence rating and an average five out of five star review with Avvo, a prestigious online directory that matches consumers with lawyers. She was recently selected for the 2014 Avvo "Clients' Choice Award," a distinction she also received in 2012.

"While I'm deeply honored by the recognition, the repeat Super Lawyers selection demonstrates my serious commitment to family law and child welfare law," said Ms. Andrews. "With a growing law practice in Solano and Sacramento Counties and a focus on the greater Northern California area, we strive to provide the best possible service for our clients."

Andrews opened her first Law Office of Tiffany L. Andrews in 2010 in Fairfield, Calif., and her second location in 2014 in Folsom, Calif. Andrews practices in family law and specializes in child welfare law and delivers on the Firm's mission statement, "If you care, we care." She works in several counties in the region including Solano, Napa, Contra Costa, Sacramento, El Dorado, Placer, and Yolo, among others.

In 2013, Andrews completed 40 hours of intense instruction in Family Law with an emphasis on mediation training. She is currently working towards her certification as a Family Law specialist, which will further position the Firm in California as a leader in mediation, collaborative law representation, litigation services and unbundled services for self-represented.

She became a Certified Welfare Law Specialist in 2011 being certified by the National Association of Counsel for Children and accredited by the California State Bar Board of Legal Specialization.

Andrews received her California license to practice law in 2006 with previous positions as Associate at Law Office of Susan E. Christiansen and Associate at Dependency Associates of Sacramento.

She graduated with her Juris Doctorate from McGeorge School of Law, University of the Pacific in Sacramento, Calif. In 2001, she received a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice from California State University Sacramento in Sacramento, Calif.

Andrews is a member of the American Bar Association, National Association of Counsel for Children, California State Bar Family Law Section and Solano County Bar Association. She serves on the Board of Directors of the Sacramento Collaborative Practice Group as the Solano County representative and is an active participant with the Collaborative Law Group for Solano, Yolo and Napa Counties.

She recently drafted and submitted affirmative legislation for the California State Legislature and during the recent legislative session participated on two regional standing committees including the Bay Area Regional Standing Committee and the Sacramento Regional Standing Committee with the committees' co-chairs' direct reporting to The Executive Committee for the Family Law Section of the State Bar of California, FLEXCOM, on pending legislative issues.

Several times a year Andrews volunteers at the Sacramento Collaborative Practice Group's Divorce Options seminars.

In her spare time she enjoys the beach, camping and spending time with her family.
